

CCCW minutes – April 26, 2022

Attending were Syd Shoen , Linda Foster, Amy Pravecck, Diane Nelson (guest), Minnie Williams, Shyanne Forsheim, Jaycee Garman, Janet Jensen, Criss Neiman, Staci Green Steiner –(Guest – from FSA office), Jeannie

Habeck, Gwen Geis (Guest – former WCW President and Beef Checkoff), Linda Larsen, Roxie Dacar and Denise

Wagner.

President Linda Larsen called the meeting to order at 11:50 at the Greater Hulett Community Center, Hulett, Wyoming.

We recited the Pledge and Denise opened the meeting with a prayer following a meal prepared by Criss and Minnie from the beef Minnie won at the Christmas party raffle provided by the Habeck Ranch.

Rachel was gone so Linda read the minutes. Jeannie made a motion to approve the minutes and Janet second.

Minutes were approved.

The treasurer report was read by Roxie and Criss made a motion to accept the report and Linda 2nd. Report approved with a total of $11,277.69.

Reports:

Signs – Danny White has pipe frame work up for the signs – Tracy was not present so no more info.

Beef in the Schools – Criss reported there were no new information to report – all schools have local beef.

By Laws – to change Section 4 1 & 3 – will be sent to all members and voted on at May meeting – it has to do with dues and date due

Reg. 5 – Janet emailed info for the Region 5 meeting in Cody to all members – also items were collected for gift basket (CCCW bag, Book from Amy ‘C is for Care’, jellies, sewing kit, first aid kit, table runner and other item to be brought)

Beef-It-New – Janet asked for info and suggestions and offered to let someone else write the info up. But we all thought Janet is still doing a good job.

Ag news – Denise brought up several items from the papers – Blue Creek Marbled Meat Co, Billings and Montana piloting a farm to fork program for 3 school districts.

Website – Criss is going to update as time allows.

Bags were accounted for and one was donated for the Region 5 gift basket

Old Business:

Weston County would like to do a Radio spot on the Down Dirt Roads Radio to promote beef. They were referred to Andrea Wood – owner - and we are not sure where Hannah is on this project at this point.

The Region 5 conference wants $150 to support the conference. Criss motioned to give WCW $150 for the Reg 5 conference and Roxie second. Motion carried.

New Business:

Staci Green-Steiner spoke from the FSA office. She handed out some information and encouraged everyone to document dates, weather and incidents and the FSA is looking for people to be a weather reporter to have a more accurate response for Crook County. They are also looking to hire program technicians.

Gwin Geis former president of WCW gave out 2 life member plaques to Janet Jensen and Jeanette Smith.

Amy presented a book ‘C is for Care’ written by Amanda Radke (SD) published by Ag Story Tellers that is sponsored by Zoetis – to promote Agriculture awareness. Zoetis was donating to the library and the CCCW Reg 5 meeting and our book giveaway. Check out AmandaRadke.com for other books too.

Meeting adjourned at 1pm

Next meeting May 24 at the Old West Texas Trail Museum in Moorcroft – Denise hosting

Denise Wagner Acting Secretary
